

Cacique Awards 2017 Names Dean Spychalla as Bahamas Hotelier of the Year

The Ministry of Tourism and The Bahamas Hotel and Tourism Association (BHTA) honored Valentines Resort and Marina's Dean Spychalla as 2017's Hotelier of the Year, and Tyrone Anderson, Manager of the Year nominee at the 17th Annual Cacique Awards.

Considered by many to be the most prestigious travel award in the Bahamas, the Cacique Awards honor individuals in 25 categories in the hospitality and tourism sector. The Awards select individuals who demonstrate exceedingly high standards of service excellence along with dedication and commitment to the tourist industry

Valentine's staff is proud of Dean and Tyrone whose personal achievements not only gave them this renowned recognition, but for bringing success to all aspects of the resort operations. All are proud of the award recognition and customer raves, many of which you can find on the reviews page in the Experience section of our website.
